

Happy Easter

We wish you a sunny and prosperous Easter - the zub team

Come and Meet us! Hannover-Messe, April 23 to 27 - Hall 15/D09

Join us for a premiere at this year's Hannover Messe:

zub machine control AG will be showcasing robotics applications with zub controllers and maxon motors at the maxon motor stand.

Register to meet with our CEO Dr. Uwe Oeftiger or our Sales Manager Roman Berger by calling us or by e-mailing info@zub.ch.

Get a free admission ticket with our promotional code 'czye6', either by following this Link or by registering via your cell phone with this QR code:

SINDEX in Bern, August 28 to 30 - Hall 3/E04

For the first time, zub will be presenting the new compact controller MACS5-Compact and its wide range of applications. Dieter Bieler and Roman Berger are looking forward to seeing you there.

sps ipc drives, November 27 to 29 - Hall 1/100

And of course, you will find us once again at the sps ipc drives in Nuremberg, where for the first time we will be sharing a joint stand with maxon motor.

We would like to invite you to come along too: Our experts are ready and waiting to hear from you. Let's toast the premiere and our mutual success with a glass of sparkling wine.

No Easter surprise, but a long time coming: welcome to the team!

We will soon have the pleasure of welcoming our two new employees:

Ms. Ye Schacher will take on the position of Sales Assistant, supporting our Sales Manager Mr. Roman Berger with internal sales, with a focus on order processing. We are particularly pleased that Ms. Schacher is well-equipped to represent us in our international activities in China too. Nǐ hǎo!

Mr. Elias Dönni will join the zub team having recently gained an MSc in Electrical Engineering. With his expertise in power electronics and control technology and his enthusiasm, he is ideally qualified for his role as a software/hardware developer. Grüezi!

Building social networks the analog way! Come to zub's regular meet-up!

Get to know the NEWBIES in the zub team. Face to face and without any obligation over a beer... but that doesn't have to mean that business is off the table. zub employees, past and present, are meeting on May 9 at 6:00 p.m. at Gasthof Ochsen in Rothenburg. For the reservation, we require a non-binding commitment from you by telephone or by e-mail to kb@zub.ch
